From: Financial Times Briefing <FT@emailbriefings.ft.com>
To: ehbarak1@gmail.com
CC:
Date: Fri, 12/11/2015 9:36:38 AM
Subject: In today's FT: Scientists link UK stormto global warming, Fresh Lo...

To view this email as a webpage, click here

FINANCIAL TIMES

Friday December 11 2015

UK HOMEPAGE

Scientists link UK storm to global warming

Climate change increased chance of such record rains by about 40 per cent, says research team

Fresh London airport delay sparks backlash

'Gutless' government puts Heathrow or Gatwick decison on hold

Fosun International suspends share trades

Reports that Chinese group's chairman, Guo Guangchang, has gone missing

VIDEO

Time for a Glencore turnround?

Shares in Glencore rose 14% after the miner raised its debt reduction target. Lex's Oliver Ralph and Jonathan Eley discuss the group's plans and whether they will be enough to stem concerns about its debt levels amid a collapse in commodity prices.

US HOMEPAGE

Women of 2015: Michelle Obama

Her parents were determined that she get a good education. Now the US first lady tells about her own mission to keep girls in school around the world

Older Americans reshape the middle class

Companies struggle to adapt to an over-60s group that is set to drive half of all US spending growth

Experts baffled by climate change wording

Paris deal draft refers to ‘greenhouse gas emissions neutrality’

EUROPE HOMEPAGE

FC Barcelona takes a shot at €1bn goal

Catalan club has six-year business strategy to rival English Premier League

EU plans new force to police borders

Big transfer of sovereignty proposed in attempt to save Schengen zone amid migration crisis

Poles say Cameron defeated on migrant benefits

Warsaw officials say British PM gave up on centrepiece of his EU renegotiation

ASIA HOMEPAGE

Zuma backlash over sacking of minister

Rand weakens on concerns over abrupt dismissal of Nhlanhla Nene

Donald Trump blasts ‘ungrateful’ Scots

US presidential candidate stung by criticism of his call to ban Muslims

Atlantic Media in talks to sell Quartz

US publishing group met suitor this month to discuss business news site’s future

WORLD NEWS

French mainstream in scramble as FN rises

Older parties try to prevent historic far-right victory on Sunday

Trump postpones Israel trip after rebuke

Netanyahu distanced himself from Republican candidate's call to ban Muslims from entering the US

Khomeini grandson to enter Iran politics

Moderate cleric upsets hardliners by suggesting legacy of 1979 revolution was distorted

Badlands threaten Brazil climate pledge

Violent lawlessness hobbles nation's efforts to halt illegal deforestation

Macri sworn in with vow to unite Argentina

Cristina Fernández boycotts inauguration of successor

COMPANIES NEWS

Ford to spend $4.5bn on electric cars

Group plans to increase vehicles with electric drive option to 40% by 2020

Ore price collapse prompts Vale downgrade

Brazilian miner also faces potential legal action over accident

Conoco cuts spending to half 2014 level

Reduced capital budget is latest sign of how weak oil and gas prices are weighing on investment

VW tries to get a grip after scandal

Some investors left unconvinced after chief executive seeks to move on by outlining strategy

Third Ave shuts door on high-yield fund

Worst week reported for outflows from junk bond funds since August 2014

MARKETS

Asia bourses look to end week lower

Falling oil prices and weak overnight lead from Wall Street weigh on equities

Covered bonds advance beyond Europe

Market has many attractions for banks and their regulators

Weakening renminbi poses stability threat

Gap between official onshore and offshore rate at its widest in 3 months

Opec oil output speeds up in November

Production accelerates to 31.7m b/d, from 31.5m b/d in October

Miner bond yields test new highs

Debt investors cautious in face of protracted commodity slump

COMMENT

Le Pen not Trump is the bigger danger

The National Front leader promises return to a past Europe thought it had left behind forever

How New York stole Silicon Valley's crown

Entrepreneurial activity in the US is rising in surprising places and among an older age group

England's housing crisis solved

The government must slay the sacred cows — the greenbelts around cities being the holiest of all

Give Mayer a chance to make Yahoo work

The company remains a blur of services and assets of different values, writes Philip Delves Broughton

Great American texts according to Trump

The controversial presidential candidate could possibly have a unique take on US history

MANAGEMENT

Delivery drivers: face of online shopping

The role is being changed by technology and a squeeze on the logistics industry

Sonos Play:5 v Chromecast Audio

Sound investment from a maestro of home music and a Google dongle

Wine-inspired revival for Japanese towels

Brand-led turnround for textile industry against backdrop of regional decline

Manage email

Forward this email

Feedback

Manage portfolio

Subscribe to the FT

Follow the FT

Unsubscribe | My Account | RSS | Privacy Policy | About Us | Help

© THE FINANCIAL TIMES LTD 2015

You have received this email because you have signed up from the NBE preference page.

This email was sent by a company owned by Financial Times Group Limited (FT Group), registered office at Number One Southwark Bridge, London SE1 9HL.

Registered in England and Wales with company number 879531.